DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 35, 53, drawn to method which determines when particular operations are available to display alarm, classified in class 725, subclass 108.
 - II. Claims 52, 58-67, 72, drawn to an apparatus displaying an emergency warning regarding operation, classified in class 725, subclass 33
 - III. Claims 31-34, 41-44, 68-70, drawn to method which blocks access in certain situations, classified in class 725, subclass 25.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II, III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, subcombination I, method which determines when particular operations are available to display alarm has separate utility from subcombinations II, III, such as public safety monitoring for civil defense and subsequent public address announcement in event of civil defense breach. Subcombination II, method which is drawn to an apparatus displaying an emergency warning regarding operation, has separate utility from subcombination III such as overhead billboard announcements during highway construction or accident. See MPEP § 806.05(d).
3. The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a).

Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

4. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all of these invention listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if the restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

(a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their difference classification;

(b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;

(c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);

(d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;

(e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely.

Art Unit: 2623

Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. A telephone call was made to Lerner, David, Littenberg, Krumholz & Mentlik, LLP on 6/30/2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
